

Enon General Baptist Church | Crossroads Newsletter

June 2019

As I was praying about my article for the June CrossRoads Newsletter, several things came to mind. The Mission to West Virginia, Father's Day and Vacation Bible School all take place this month. The Mission is June 9th-14th; Father's Day is June 16th, and VBS is June 24th-27th. I debated which event to write about, or if I should write about any of them?

Each of these will affect each of us in different ways:

Some of us will actually be going on the mission, while others pray and support financially.

Some will celebrate Father's Day as dads and/or with their dads, while others of us will lovingly remember our dads who have gone home to be with Jesus.

Some of us will serve in the thick of VBS hubbub and activity, while others pray and help the church get ready for the week .

The Christian journey was never meant to be experienced in exactly the same way by every person. The journey will be different for every single one of us. The Apostle Paul understood this and wrote to the church in Corinth, "So... whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God." --1 Corinthians 10: 31, NIV--

And to the Colossians, Paul wrote, "And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him." --Colossians 3: 17, NIV--

This is my prayer for each of us in whatever we're involved in or however we're involved: That we do it ALL in the name of Jesus for the glory of God!

Pastor Tammy

Gratitude

Proverbs 14:6: "Whoever fears the Lord has a secure fortress, and for their children it will be a refuge."

When Alex was 4, his dad was his superhero. Every night, he knew his dad would vanquish any monsters lurking in his bedroom when needed.

When Alex was 10, his dad was his champion. His declaration of "my dad can beat up your dad any day!" stopped all bullies in their tracks, for they knew Alex's dad was a very broad-shouldered man.

When Alex was 17, his dad was his enforcer. When Alex lost his driving privileges for a near accident, Alex complained and sulked, but in his heart knew he deserved it.

When Alex was 23, his dad was his encourager. "Just always put her needs before yours," Dad whispered in his son's ear, right before the wedding began.

When Alex was 28, his dad was his mentor. "Just always put his needs before yours," he told Alex, who admitted he was nervous about being a father to his newborn son, Micah.

When Alex was 56, his dad became his example. With eyes full of pain, yet peace, Dad held Alex's callused hand in his own gnarled one, and said, "I love you, Son, and I'm proud of you. I'm ready to go home."

When Micah was 4, his dad was his superhero...

Happy Father's Day with much gratitude to all the superheroes, champions, enforcers, encouragers, mentors, and examples in our life. Your wise Christian guidance will continue to live on from generation to generation.

Parents, Grandparents, and Guardians of Enon Kids,

“Therefore, put on the full armor of God, so that when the day of evil comes, you may be able to stand your ground, and after you have done everything, you will be standing firm.” Ephesians 6:13 (NIV)

During the month of June, we will be studying the Armor of God. We will begin teaching our Enon Kids about spiritual battles. I recommend sitting down as a family with your kids and reading about the Armor of God together. Look for it in Ephesians 6:12-18. Have conversations about how important it is to wake up and put this armor on every day. Even though we cannot see this armor with our physical eyes, we can trust in our God that He will cover us with His armor. It's okay to be real with kids and let them know why we need this armor. The enemy is very real. We are not to be afraid of him, because we know WHO protects us.

Pray over our Children's Ministry as we transition into new territory. We will be teaching new leaders and trying to split our Children's Church into younger and older classes. We also would like to offer Nursery during early service. Please be in prayer over our current volunteers who have stepped up to teach and volunteer to rock those sweet babies!

Be on the lookout for a volunteer table in the Family Life Center. We need more help for Sunday mornings and for our upcoming VBS!

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY to all the awesome dads!

Father's Day Humor

Two boys were boasting.

"My dad dug the hole that started the Panama Canal."

"Oh yeah? Well, my father killed the Dead Sea!"

During Sunday School, the teacher was giving the kids the basics of how burnt sacrifices were made in the Old Testament. Little Meredith called out, "My dad does that but he calls that barbecuing!"

A father and son were out fishing. The boy asked, "How does this boat float?"

"I'm not sure, Son."

"Okay, how do fish breathe underwater?"

"I don't know that one either."

"Why is the sky blue?"

"Sorry, Son, but I can't answer that."

"Dad, I'm sorry for asking all these questions."

"Don't be. If you don't ask questions, how will you learn anything?"

A man had a habit of complaining at the food his wife served him every night. But when he said the blessing, he always thanked God for the food. One night, ten-year-old Michael asked, "Dad, does God really hear everything we say?"

"Yes, Son, every word," his dad replied, proud that his son was curious about spiritual matters.

His pride turned to humility when his son continued, "Then which of your words is God supposed to believe?"

When a father and his little boy was heading home from church, the father was complaining about everything in the service. He criticized the sermon, the choir, even the organist. The little boy had observed his father's contribution to the offering plate and said, "But it wasn't bad for five bucks, was it, Dad?"

After being sent to bed early for misbehaving, a little boy closed his bedtime prayer by saying, "And please don't give my dad anymore kids...He doesn't know how to treat the one he has now!"

Humor submitted by Shana Hyneman

The following joke submitted by a wonderful father, Reverend Jim Black:

A policeman knocked on a lady's door and told her that her dog was chasing people on a bicycle. The lady replied, "That's ridiculous! My dog doesn't know how to ride a bike!"
